

The Green Economics Institute

Saturday 30th July 2016 Oxford 3.00pm-17.30

Conference Announcement

Mental Health

Expert Panel

Mental Health, a Green Economics issue.
The importance of Sustainability, Equality and Equity

Why should we care about mental health? The impact, the stigma and the link with green economics.

Invited Keynote Speakers:

Dr Katherine Kennet, Psychiatrist and Medical Doctor, UK and Nepal, Dr Daniel Maughan, Royal College of Psychiatry Associate Registrar for Sustainability, Registrar in psychiatry Early Intervention Service, Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust. Dr Red Elmahdi, Medical Doctor, Global Health Research Work in HIV diagnosis and Health Equity. Dr Sam Porter, Psychiatrist, Teaching Mental Health in a Medical School in Malawi. He will be talking about his experiences in Malawi and the stigma of mental health. Dr Gianetta Rands, Senior Older Ages Psychiatrist and Editor of "Women's Voices: A Past Present and Prospect," Addressing gender bias in Psychiatry, Gender bias, its importance and how to challenge it and create change.

Information

Venue: Kellogg College, University of Oxford
Date: 3.00pm -17.30pm Saturday 30th July 2016

Bookings and Registration

For more information, fees and to register, email us to reserve your place at:
info@greeneconomicsinstitutetrust.org Website www.greeneconomicsinstitutetrust.org

